

Features

Complete Pole Lifecycle Support

Web-Based Access & Administration

Automated Workflow and Notifications

Extensive Ad Hoc Reports and Queries

Advanced System Security

Fully Managed Hosted Service

Benefits

:: Capture complete pole information including height, type, set date, equipment, etc. for accurate asset management

:: Coordinate new pole sets and plant upgrades

:: Manage the identification transfer and remediation of double poles

:: Centralize field audit information for reporting, review and progress management

:: Information is available 24/7 when you need it, where you need it, through a standard Web browser

:: No software to install or manage

:: Intuitive navigation through web interface

:: Configurable workflow based on New Pole, Double Poles and Pole Audits

:: Alerts when you can perform pole work with Ball In Court notification

:: Eliminates wasted field trips

:: Configure notifications to specific individuals or groups by type and location

:: Report on pole activities by stage for work planning and review

:: Report at the company, state, location, and location group levels

:: Export asset and activity files into corporate data warehouses for additional analysis

:: Assign flexible system access rights including Read Only, General User, Attachee, and System Admin

:: Drill down security ensures authorized users only have access to their pole information

:: High security, scalability and reliability

:: Zero system hardware costs

:: Applications, servers, network and data center are completely operated with no client IT involvement required

:: Automated data back-ups for information storage and retrieval